at 0400 on Saturday 30 Oct 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
A wet start, but a brighter afternoon with some showers.

Today:
Cloudy with some heavy rain first thing, however turning much drier and brighter through the morning. Sunny spells and scattered showers through the afternoon. Feeling fresher than of late, and rather breezy. Maximum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Tonight:
Showers will fade this evening to leave a dry spell with clear periods. However, it will become windy overnight with another band of heavy rain sweeping eastwards across the country. Minimum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Sunday:
Wet and windy weather will clear away fairly quickly to leave sunshine for a time. However, plenty of showers will break out by the afternoon, some heavy and very blustery. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Remaining unsettled through the start of the week. Often quite windy with showers at times. Some sunny spells too, but temperatures below average for the time of year.
